

This map illustrates phosphorus emissions entering the surface water bodies from catchment areas.

The emissions were calculated according to long-term average hydrological conditions and measures indicated by the countries to be implemented by 2021. Calculation was implemented using the MONERIS model (Venohr et al., 2011).

www.icpdr.org